

Phrasal Modals and Modals Overview Practice

Directions: Add to when it is necessary. Write x when to is not necessary.

1. Sherry is able _____ run a mile in under 4 minutes.
2. Would he _____ give me a ride home?
3. You had better _____ leave earlier because there is a lot of traffic at this time.
4. Annie can _____ bake very well, so everyone asks her to make something every week.
5. He has got _____ talk to his girlfriend about the problem.
6. We ought _____ watch the video again. I didn't see that funny part.
7. Should Jake _____ get a new pair of glasses? Her old glasses have a lot of scratches.
8. You may _____ go to the restroom, but hurry up!
9. The babies have _____ sleep now. It's their nap time.
10. Tomorrow, I will _____ fly home for the party.

Directions: Fill in the correct form of the modal/phrasal modal.

Example: The computer has to scan (have to scan) the file for viruses.

1. You _____ (have to cut) the grass. It is getting too long!
2. You _____ (must wear) your seatbelt when you drive.
3. Jane isn't going to the party because she _____ (have got to take) care of her sick son.
4. We _____ (ought to buy) a lottery ticket. The prize is $150 million!
5. The teachers _____ (should discuss) the classroom rules with the students at the beginning of the school term.
6. He has many talents. He _____ (be able to play) many sports, draw, cook, sing, fly an airplane, and make online games!
7. The party _____ (have got to finish) by 10pm because we have to rush to the airport after.
8. Smartphones _____ (be able to do) anything these days. How did people live without them before?
9. When winter comes in Chicago, you _____ (have to wear) a long, thick jacket . It's freezing!
10. You _____ (ought to say) thank you when someone does something nice for you.